

Any Baby Can Annual Report 2007

At Any Baby Can, we believe that all children can reach their potential through education, therapy and family support services.

Any Baby Can

Demographics of Children and Families Served

Race/Ethnicity of Clients

- 68% Hispanic
- 13% African-American
- 12% Anglo
- 4% Unknown
- 2% Other
- 1% Asian

Residence of Clients

- Travis 90%
- Unknown 4%
- Williamson 2%
- Other 2%
- Hays 1%
- Bastrop 1%

Income of Clients*

- 82% of families earn less than $30,975
- 12% of families earn between $30,975 and $41,300
- 6% of families earn $41,300 or more

*Based on an annual income for a family of four. The 2007 Federal Poverty Income Level Guidelines consider a family of four with an annual income of $20,650 to be living in poverty.

Any Baby Can Served 5,107 Children and Their Families in 2007

Any Baby Can offers a strong continuum of services to meet the vast needs of children in our community and their families. The data below shows the number of children served through programs at Any Baby Can.

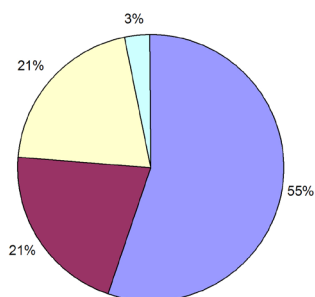

Candlelighters Childhood Cancer Program	88
C.A.R.E. Program (Medical Case Management)	166
Childbirth Classes	249
Early Childhood Intervention Program	388
Family Literacy Program	705
Healthy and Fair Start Program	178
Neighborhood Playgroups for Early Literacy	136
No Estás Solo Counseling Program	142
Parenting/Childcare Classes	1,110
Prenatal Education Program	209

In addition to these programs, Any Baby Can provided the following services to more than 1,800 people: information and referral for children with special needs, early childhood intervention screening, child/parent screening and referral at east Austin WIC (Women, Infants, and Children) Clinics, plus respite services and emergency assistance including food, utilities, housing and medications.

In 2007, Any Baby Can's budget was $3.7 million.

Revenue

Expenditures

